Profile

On track to achieve a first in BA (Hons) Filmmaking at Leeds Beckett University (The Northern Film School). I'm a creative driven and innovative team player who has worked with incredible teams at Channel 4 and Plenish, Britvic's marketing department.

Alongside my studies, I am also a founding member of 'The Luminary', an independent film screening group based in Leeds. We host pop-up screening of films all over Leeds, with a goal to illuminate hidden masterpieces. Additionally I write for the News Paper Society at Leeds Beckett and have just released my first article on film recommendations for flatmates. While studying at university, I have worked part-time at Everyman, hosting events at the Leeds venue, including the BBC premiere of Better and a Channel 4 Christmas event.
